

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

HISTORIC STORY OF WASHINGTON, THE NATIONAL CAPITAL. By Charles Fort Todd. Illustrated. 12mo., pp. 417. G. E. Putnam's Sons.

The story of Washington is necessarily to a great extent an account of the gradual development of the machinery of the National Government; but it has had a history sufficiently chequered to constitute an interesting narrative. Exposed during its monos to the persistent attacks of all the "capital movers" who had other ends in view, it resisted all these influences. A greater evil not only threatened, but bethel, it during the war with England, when all the public buildings, including the Capitol and the White House, were destroyed. During the rebellion the safety of the seat of the Federal Government was several times menaced, and once seriously, when Early came within gunshot of the fortifications. With a few hours more he must have captured the city. Washington, too, has witnessed great and tragic events. Two Presidents have been struck down by the assassin there. Two great armies passed in review there after saving the Union. There were fought out there preliminary engagements between North and South which determined the necessity of resort to the arbitrament of the sword. In many ways the history of Washington is, though not extensive, deeply interesting, and it well deserves a prominent place in the series of "Stories of the Cities."

Mr. Todd has used his material with judgment, and his book is a compendious account of the city, past and present. It grows very slowly, being, so late as 1829, almost everything which a national capital ought not to be. The haussmanizing enterprises carried out under the rule of Governor Shepherd no doubt advanced Washington twenty or thirty years, and for the first time realized some of the necessary and indispensable improvements which Congress had therefore been too occupied with great national issues to concern itself about. The scandal and investigation which followed the operations of the so-called Shepherd "ring" are almost forgotten now, and the improvements remain, and operate as an earnest of further development. Mr. Todd divides his story into two parts, the first of which deals with the establishment, growth and vicissitudes of Washington; while the second treats of the institutions, Government buildings and notable sights generally of the city. The old memoirs and letters furnish him abundant material for illustrating those early times when it was a serious journey in bad weather from the White House to the Capitol; when the members of Congress could not find decent lodgings within three or four miles of the Capitol, and the city was more than half bare, and blighted with unsightly, and barbarous mansions and mud-holes. It was no wonder that desperate efforts were made to move the capital, for it must have been a most unpleasant and inconvenient place wherein to perform the public business.

BOOKS OF THE WEEK.

HISTORIC STORY OF MAN. Select Sermons. By Samuel Smith Harris. D. B. D. 12mo., pp. 266. (Chicago: A. C. McClurg & Co.)

JESUS AND FACT BY E. H. Chamberlin. 12mo., pp. 160.

A MISSING HUSBAND AND OTHER TALES. By George R. Sims. 12mo., pp. 162. (J. S. Ogilvie.)

JEREMIAH: HIS LIFE AND TIMES. By the Rev. T. V. M. Chapman. M. A. 12mo., pp. 205. (Aldine D. F. Randolph & Co.)

DANIEL: HIS LIFE AND TIMES. By H. Deane. B. D. 12mo., pp. 204. (Aldine D. F. Randolph & Co.)

THE HISTORY OF THE COAST OF ROYAL ENGINEERS. By W. Whittemore. 2 vols. 8vo. (Longmans, Green & Co.)

MIDNIGHT SUNBEAMS: OR, RITES OF TRAVEL. By the Rev. G. E. WORREMAN. 16mo., pp. 120. (Boston: Cappell & Hurt.)

RELAXANT MOSES IN THE WORLD. By J. B. Smith. 12mo., pp. 267. (Boston: Cappell & Hurt.)

JEWISH PORTRAITS. By Lady Magnus. 16mo., pp. 212. (Boston: Cappell & Hurt.)

THE HOUSE IN ALBURY PARK. A Novel. By M. J. Somerville. 12mo., pp. 261. (Boston: Cappell & Hurt.)

NATURAL INHERITANCE. By Francis Galton, author of "English Men of Science: Their Nature and Nurture," "Inquiries into Human Faculty and Human Development," etc., etc. 12mo., pp. 50.

STATESMANS YEAR-BOOK (The). A Statistical and Historical Account of the States of the Civilized World. For the year 1888. Edited by J. Scott Keltie. Revised after Official Returns. 12mo., pp. 62.

"That most useful of all reference authorities. Even now the most critical of critics announce that they can discover no mistakes."—G. W. S. in New York Tribune.

History of English Literature. New Volume. A HISTORY OF EIGHTEENTH CENTURY LITERATURE. (1660-1780) BY EDMUND GOSSE, M. A., Clark Lectures on English Literature at Trinity College, Cambridge. (Forming the Third Volume of "A History of English Literature.") 12mo., Library Edition, $1.75; Student's Edition, $1.

"In fact, Eighteenth Century Literature is far from being exclusively adapted to us. The extracts and short biographies contain interesting personal details of writers, some of whom are little known, and will be of interest to the general public as with those who may claim a special knowledge of its subjects."—London Atheneum.

MACMILLAN & CO., NEW-YORK. 112 FOURTH-AVE.

NOW READY. 1889. (7th Annual Issue. THE INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL ANNUAL.

A resume in dictionary form of New Remedies and New Treatment that have come to the knowledge of the Medical Profession throughout the world during 1888.

EDITED BY PERCY WILDE, M. D. and twenty-five Associate Editors, European and American, in their several specialties.

An indispensable volume to the medical practitioner and student, and to all persons interested in the latest and best medical literature in style with MEDICAL CLASSICS, of which 15 volumes are now ready.

E. B. TREAT, Publisher. 771 Broadway. Remove May 1, to 5 and 13 Cooper Union, New-York.

PUBLISHED TO-DAY: CHOPIN, AND OTHER MUSICAL ESSAYS.

BY HENRY T. FINCK, author of "Romantic Love and Personal Beauty," etc.

Mr. Finck's papers cover a broad field in a bright, original, and forcible manner, and attest his admirable power for the discussion of critical theories and musical speculations. The title of the Essays are: "Chopin, the Greatest Genius of the Pianoforte"; "How Composers Work"; "Schumann as Mirrored in His Letters"; "Music and Morals"; "Italian and German Vocal Styles"; and "German Opera in New-York."

W. H. DODGE, Price, 50c. (Appleton & Co.)

A TREATISE ON COOPERATIVE SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS. By Raymond Dexter. 12mo., pp. 120. (Appleton & Co.)

THE PLATYPUS NATURALIST. By Dr. J. E. Taylor. 12mo., pp. 257. (R. Appleton & Co.)

HOME GYMNASTICS. By E. Auguste, M. D. and G. Régnier. 8vo., pp. 94. (Houghton, Mifflin & Co.)

New Publications.

REVISED EDITION FOR 1889.

"INFINITE RICHES IN A LITTLE ROOM." CASSELL'S POCKET GUIDE TO EUROPE.

Written by E. C. BREEDMAN, of New-York; compiled by EDWARD KING, of Paris; revised by M. F. SWETT, of Boston.

"For accuracy, fulness, legibility of text and maps, compact beauty and usefulness, and low price, it is the model work of its kind."

ONE VOLUME LEATHER BINDING, PRICE, 50c.

It is accurate, its maps are clear and legible, and its information full and exact.—Boston Transcript.

"The best of the kind published."—Bulletin, Phila.

Such a model of fulness of information, compactness of arrangement, and cheapness should be in every European tourist's pocket.—Edinburgh and Daily Express.

EUROPEAN GLIMPSES AND GLANCES. By J. M. Emerson. Author of "New-York to the Orient," etc., with portrait of author and 42 illustrations. 1 vol. 12mo., cloth. Price 75c.

NEW NOVELS.

BURKE'S LOCK. By M. G. McQUELLAND, author of "Madame River," "Madame," etc. etc. One Vol. 12mo. Paper, 50 Cents. Cloth, 75 Cents.

THE PAINTER OF PARMA.

By H. C. Brewster. The India story of Love, Mystery and Adventure, by SIR IVANUS CORN, Jr., author of "The Gunmaker of Moscow," "Kings of the North," "Orion the Gold Hunter," etc., etc.

One Vol. 12mo. Paper, 80 Cents. Cloth, 75 Cents.

A MAN OF THE NAME OF JOHN;

By GEORGE KING. 2 vols. Paper, 25 Cents.

For New in New-York.

MARSH & COMPANY, LIMITED,

104 AND 105 FIFTH-AVE., NEW-YORK.

NEW BOOK OF OPEN-FLAME SPONGE. 500 pages, 12mo., cloth, $2.50. The Standard authority on all kinds of sponge, their qualities, uses, etc., etc. It contains chapters on Sponge Culture, the Manufacture of Sponge, etc., etc. It is a valuable addition to the library of any collector of marine specimens.

OAKLAND COLLEGE. Nyack-on-the-Hudson. For Ladies. Classes begin Aug. 23. Open every day. Send for Circulars.

NEW-YORK.—For Boys and Young Men—City.

NEW-YORK.—Illustrated. For Students, especially for the University. Price 25c. per month. Address: NEW-YORK UNIVERSITY LIBRARY, 10 West 12th Street, New-York.

NEW-YORK.—Illustrated. For Boys and Young Men—Country.

NEW-YORK.—Illustrated. For Boys and Young Men—City.

NEW-YORK.—Illustrated. For Boys and Young Men—Country.

NEW-YORK.—Illustrated